On any given night the Knuckle and Fist is the heart of Royal Wootton Bassett high-street nightlife, but these are not any given times.

On Thursday 14 th of April 2024 an outbreak happened that has, so far, claimed the life of 8.

Terry stand-in pub landlord had this to say, "It was carnage frankly, when we finally got the doors open I saw 3 men drop dead in puddles of their own gastric fluids."

Since the events of late '22 the neighbouring independent republic of Stockbridge has called for tighter lockdown pressure over the Northern region of the North Wessex Downs. Suffice to say the tragedy of last Thursday is mired the by the irony of the rule abiding Covid's. 15 more were moved from the pub in critical condition. One bystander at the scene said, 'GUUURRR TTTTHHHHHHHFFFGG-GGLIDD UURRRR'.

We apologise for the language they used. The Unknown Virus is now the third biggest killer in the Western Country alliance, after lightening

"ONE MONEY"

Today November 5 th 2034 President Abloh addressed the nation on Instagram live with a four-hour Jazz DJ set. The mix made use of previous Presidents addresses by sampling them at random. A Gallup poll taken directly afterwards suggested 96% of boys aged between 12 and 16 said President Abloh was a genius. Winning in a landslide perhaps President Abloh's most popular policy was the redesign of the dollar as money.

The debt burden with China now exceeds RMB5 billion. Not to worry the first shipment of six million plastic CD cases with money written on them with Sharpie will arrived in Shanghai later today.

Vice President West renounced his title as soon as the result was announced declaring himself God.

Body Collage became a global trend in the 2020's but over the last few 10 years it has become the look synonymous with every person young and old.

Here are some tips for those few who are finally getting on the band wagon, or maybe just those looking for a bit of inspiration.

These are the essential items EVERYONE needs in 2043.

Bin Bag Couture

Bin bags were once used simply to line bins - I know, crazy right

The trend started as a simple camouflage necessity for the refuse people. As their society spread over the northern hemisphere, so did bin bag couture.

Ok so everyone wears bin bag's that doesn't mean you can't individualize. Some people still wear regular jeans - BORING - I like to tie 12 to 17 bin bags around my legs, its both warm and fashionable.

Get the landfill look.

Industrial LED Lighting

Is your Epileptic friend annoying you? Get back at them with a cute LED Summer Dress for men.

Get yourself 10 or so long LED bulbs from the ceilings of an abandoned office building and string them together around you torso.

Celeb Profile: Kate Lupton

In the Autumn of 2024 I made the move from war reporter to lifestyle writer. My award winning series "Why your not worth anything you fat ugly paedophile," ran for 3 years.

At first it was difficult organising all my spring styling tips with my pop-politics but I soon made it work.

I followed this column with – "I hope you die a painful death you rat fascists prolapse," which included less running tips and more delicious food.

When I first dethatched my hand following the Wootton Bassett Masacre I new I had seen the future of the fashion market.

I developed these ideas in my DAFTA (Dis-Articulated Fuck Toss Association) award winning web series, 'KUNTZ'.

Even though that journey was wonderful and fulfilling I still felt after the deathly blast that there was more I could discover and share with my loyal pre-teen audience.

During my travels with the deadly blood gangs of the Midlands I have filmed the recording breaking films on my guide to life.

The first video I uploaded to Youtube "how to brush your teeth" garnered 60,000,000 views in its first week, which is remarkable as the population of Europe then amounted to 30,000.

The fifth video was a personal milestone for me. I mean not to brag when I say it's a cultural landmark. Winning the Pulitzer Prize for public service "how to eat soup" is my life's work.
